

Please provide by email to Paul and I the following in preparation for your final report:

Premise:

one to two declarative sentences describing the "argument" behind your research leading to a conclusion.

Gap:

what is the gap in the research literature that your research intends to fill?

Purpose:

one of two sentences that states the purpose of your research.

Hypothesis:

one clear testable research hypothesis.

Objectives:

give 1-3 objectives of the study.

Research methodology and statistical approach:

please describe the study design that led to the dataset at hand and your plan for the analysis.

Once we have reviewed your project proposal you can team up with someone from the class to take turns presenting to each other.
